PORTION OF RUSTIC IMMERSSED IN THE GREEN SOUTH OF VERONA

In a quiet and private area, convenient to the city, we offer for sale a portion of rustic, finely restored corner.

The skilful recovery of the original materials, such as the stone walls and the natural stones of Lessinia, goes perfectly with the most modern technologies in the field of home automation to make this real estate solution not only unique but captivating and unmissable.

The restoration of the roof of the house was carried out with ventilated insulation in double layer of wool to provide the building with the best insulation and the average heights of the house were maintained with ceilings at about 3.5 meters and exposed wooden beams.

The finishes - both internal and external - in stone blend well with the bathroom wall tiles made of natural stone from Lessinia and with the parquet in prefinished brushed oak with wide plank found throughout the house, with the exception of the basement area where we find again the natural stone of Lessinia.

The house is equipped with the latest security innovations and has a modern alarm system with around 30 sensors, including an anti-flood sensor, with internal and external camera system.

The central vacuum system and the home automation system with fruits and plates top series Vimar Eikon EVO light bronze (about 150 controls, sockets and lights) are at the forefront.

The system remotely manages heating / cooling and lighting and automates the switching on of the strategic light points + UPS and allows the control of the consumption of electricity consumption.

In this masterpiece of modern plant engineering, a 3.18 kw photovoltaic system and a Viessmann heat pump with control system could not be missing.

Accessing from the courtyard there is a magnificent large entrance window which already recalls the precious interior doors with frame in solid wood and concealed hinges.

The living area consists of a living room and open kitchen and allows access to both a bedroom with bathroom and upstairs via a fine staircase in fact wrought white.

Upstairs with a balcony overlooking the living area, there is a relaxation area / gym and a large master bedroom with private bathroom.

Another strong point of this valuable housing solution is certainly the basement area where the finely finished tavern with kitchenette houses a professional Valoriani professional pizza oven with insulated flue in AISI.

Cellar, utility room, bathroom / laundry and double garage close the property, also equipped with a small rear green space.
